Synopsis:

Winner of the John Gassner Playwriting Award, All in the Timing is a critically acclaimed, award-winning, hilarious collection of comedies that combines wit, intellect, satire and just plain fun — with a love of wordplay and absurdity. The key to the play is, indeed, all in the timing — David Ives' six short plays are built on snappy patter, quick-fire comic brilliance, inspired gibberish and paradoxical plot quirks, and it takes a quick-witted cast to pull it off and an equally nimble audience to keep up. It's a collection of brain-teasing comedies that will push your smart buttons while repeatedly cracking you up.

Critics say:

"Like sketches for some hilarious, celestially conceived revue. The writing is not only very funny, it has density of thought and precision of poetry...ALL IN THE TIMING is by a master of fun. David Ives spins hilarity out of words." — The New York Times

"Theatre that aerobicizes the brain and tickles the heart. Ives is a mordant comic who has put the 'play' back in playwright...A wondrous wordmaster." — Time Magazine
